ANTHEM

Thursday, October 16, 2014, 7:30pm The Cowles Center in Minneapolis
Saturday, October 18, 2014, 7:30pm Sundin Music Hall, Hamline University in St. Paul
Sunday, October 19, 2014, 3:00pm Trinity Lutheran Church in Stillwater
Thursday, October 23, 2014, 11:00am Colonial Church of Edina
Sunday, October 26, 2014, 3:00pm Saint Bartholomew Catholic Church in Wayzata

Why do we sing? The world is full of traditions and customs of people gathering and singing together. Anthems help us express our identity and create a way for communities to show support for a cause, a heritage or even a sports team! Join Cantus in this celebration of the power of the human voice.

CHRISTMAS WITH CANTUS

Thursday, December 11, 2014, 11:00am Westminster Presbyterian Church in Minneapolis
Friday, December 12, 2014, 7:30pm Chapel of St. Thomas Aquinas in St. Paul
Saturday, December 13, 2014, 7:30pm Trinity Lutheran Church in Stillwater
Sunday, December 14, 2014, 3:00pm Saint Bartholomew Catholic Church in Wayzata
Monday, December 15, 2014, 7:30pm Ted Mann Concert Hall in Minneapolis

What would Christmas be without carols? In a season where singing is part of the celebration, Cantus looks to carols old and new to bring holiday cheer to you and your loved ones. Including music that spans more than five centuries, and, of course, Biebl's “Ave Maria,” Christmas with Cantus will include favorites sure to put you in the holiday spirit.

THE SINGING REVOLUTION: SONGS OF THE BALTIC AWAKENING

Thursday, March 12, 2015, 7:30pm The Cowles Center in Minneapolis
Sunday, March 15, 2015, 2:00pm Ordway Concert Hall in St. Paul
Thursday, March 19, 2015, 11:00am Colonial Church of Edina
Friday, March 20, 2015, 7:30pm Trinity Lutheran Church in Stillwater
Sunday, March 22, 2015, 3:00pm Saint Bartholomew Catholic Church in Wayzata

Can music really change the world? In 1989 it did, as the people of Estonia, Lithuania and Latvia joined hands in a peaceful revolution of song to gain their independence from the Soviet Union. Cantus returns to this inspiring story and the beautiful music of the Baltic states. The Pioneer Press said this program “just might be the best thing the ensemble has ever created” and the Star Tribune included it in their Best of 2012.

COVERS: A POP CONCERT

June 5, 6, 11, 12 and 13, 2015, 7:30pm The Cowles Center in Minneapolis

“The Ultimate Covers Band” – Minnesota Monthly

Is it summer yet? Don’t miss the best sing-along of the year as Cantus returns to The Cowles Center to cover more of your favorite pop hits. Whether it is music from the ‘60s, the ‘80s or something brand new, Covers will have you singing and dancing in the aisles. Always an audience favorite, Covers shows off a completely different side of Cantus.

ALL IS CALM: THE CHRISTMAS TRUCE OF 1914

December 17-21, 2014 Pantages Theatre in Minneapolis
by Peter Rothstein with musical arrangements by Erick Lichte and Timothy C. Takach

A co-production with Theater Latté Da and Hennepin Theatre Trust, All Is Calm recalls the remarkable World War I truce between Allied Forces and German soldiers in no man’s land on Christmas Eve 1914. This year’s production marks the 100th Anniversary of that night and also the final year Cantus will be performing in the production.

(Please note: Priority seating (without fees) for All Is Calm is only available through Cantus with a 3 or 4 concert package. All Is Calm cannot be included as one of your package concerts. Single tickets are on sale now through Hennepin Theatre Trust.)
